WELCOME

Two floors, exclusively yours.

No. 25 Fitzwilliam Place has a long and illustrious history with spells as a Georgian family home in the 1800's, a doctor's private practice in the early 1900's, and a hub for business and banking in the late 1990's and early 2000's.

Whether you are planning a business breakfast, a canapé and champagne reception, a three-course lunch or an elaborate six-course dinner, our professional and experienced team will be delighted to create a truly unique experience for you and your guests.

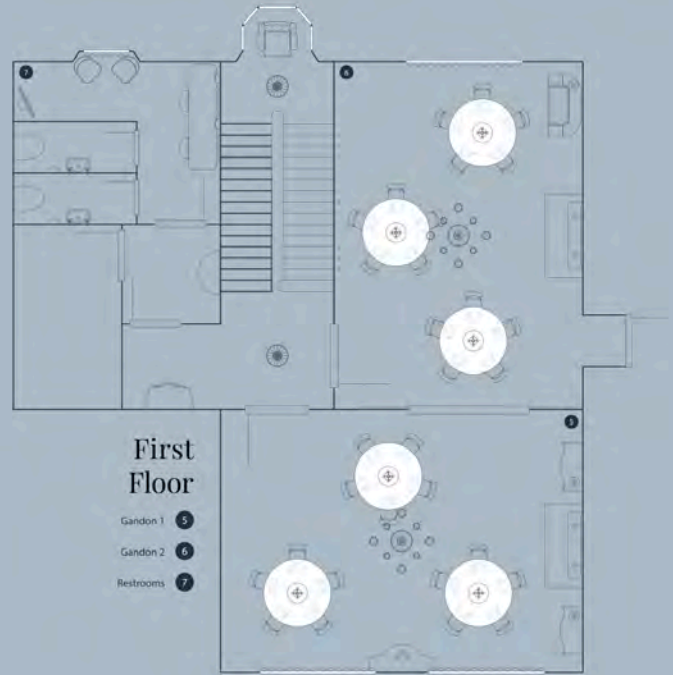

At our lovingly restored, private Georgian house, our intimate rooms offer the perfect setting for a variety of private dining, hosting everything from occasions and celebrations to corporate hospitality events.

LOCATION	FUNCTION	CAPACITY
First Floor	Standing Reception Dinner	66

Located on the first floor, the Gandon rooms can accommodate up to 66 guests seated or for standing drinks and finger food.

The adjoining rooms are painted in a distinct navy blue, and feature large floor-to-ceiling sash windows overlooking Fitzwilliam Place to the front. Oversized marble fireplaces blend with the walled plasterwork and carefully chosen artwork helps to provide a look that is impressive and elegant.

The Gandon rooms are linked by full-height double doors, which epitomise the style of Georgian entertaining at one of Dublin's most prestigious addresses.

OUR FOOD

A unique, dining experience.

With world class experience working in Michelin Star restaurants and Fairmont and Four Seasons Hotels around the world, the team at No. 25 Fitzwilliam Place have an elite background that is reflected in their 5-star service.

---

The culinary team are passionate about food and are meticulous in sourcing beautiful, local ingredients whenever possible. We support Irish farmers, artisanal producers, and fishermen across the island in the search for the best produce. This enables our team to deliver delicious plates of food to our guests, each and every time. The same team at No. 25 Fitzwilliam Place are also the same team who deliver a high-end dining experience at our sister restaurant, Suesey Street.
